AGENDA ILC

- General Survey on Collective Bargaining in the Public Sector
- Employment and social protection in the new demographic context (general discussion);
- Sustainable development, decent work and green jobs (general discussion)

General Survey on Collective Bargaining in the public sector

This General Survey report is the first to be conducted on the:

- ☐ Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention 151 (1978)
- ☐ Collective Bargaining Convention 154 (1981)
- ☐ Labour Relations (Public Service) Recommendation 159 (1978)
- ☐ Collective Bargaining Recommendation 163 (1981)

The main focus of the ILO General Survey is on collective bargaining rights in the public administration. It also covers a number of other subjects, including consultation, the civil and political rights of public sector employees, the facilities to be granted to trade union representatives, protection against acts of discrimination and interference, and dispute settlement mechanisms.

PSI Comments on General Survey on Collective Bargaining in the public sector

- First time conventions on collective bargaining in public sector are reviewed
- Freedom of association – essential services
- Recognition is unilateral
- Collective bargaining or consultations - spirit / right to strike
- Precarious work / migrant workers
- Requests to ILO – expand public sector programmes + ratification campaign + role of public sector in support of social dialogue, monitoring and implementation of labour rights

General Survey on Collective Bargaining in the public sector

Discussion of the General Survey in the CAS is scheduled for the afternoon of the 6th of June.

On the 7th in the afternoon the Committee will adopt the outcome of the discussion and on Saturday afternoon the Officers of the CAS will report to the Committee of the recurrent discussion on social dialogue the outcome of the discussion.

Their presentation will be followed by a debate with a view to ensure that the conclusions stemming from the recurrent discussion on social dialogue include a standard dimension.
